

BLACK MARRIAGE CLUB

ROOM FOR MORE

Terms of Participation, Refund Policy & Community Guidelines

Effective September 2026 · The New Year Couples Experience, January 1–31, 2027

Please read this before you register. By completing your registration you are agreeing to everything on this page. If anything here is unclear, email info@blackmarriageclub.com before you register and we will answer it.

1. What You Are Registering For

Room for More is a one-time couples experience from Black Marriage Club. One registration covers one couple — you and your spouse.

It is not a membership. It is not a subscription. There is no recurring charge, and nothing renews.

The three tiers

Tier	Price	What it includes
Just Us	$47	The Room for More Guide, 80 Date Night Ideas, the Weekly Couples Check-In Guide, and the four Sunday Reset emails. This tier does not include community access, city rooms, Opening Night or Closing Night.
In the Room	$127	Everything in Just Us, plus the National Main Room, all city rooms, The Board, Opening Night and Closing Night.
More of Us	$177	Everything in In the Room, plus the After Hours Collection.

Registration dates

Registration opens November 1, 2026 and closes December 31, 2026. No registrations are accepted after December 31, 2026, at any tier, for any reason. The experience runs January 1 through January 31, 2027.

2. How the Experience Unfolds

Room for More is delivered in stages. Registering at any point between November 1 and December 31 gives you the same experience — only the length of the build-up changes.

When	What happens
Immediately on registration	Your guide and everything included in your tier are delivered to the email address you provide. In the Room and More of Us registrations also receive an invitation to the National Main Room, sent separately within a few hours.
Until December 26, 2026	The Main Room is a place to follow along while the community builds. You will receive messages from BMC, meet featured couples, and watch the rooms fill. Member conversation is not yet open.
December 27, 2026	Every city room opens at once, and conversation opens in the Main Room and The Board. All rooms open together so that no one enters an empty room.
January 1–31, 2027	The experience runs. Daily prompts, four Sunday Reset emails, and your city room live all month.
January 3, 2027	Opening Night.
January 31, 2027	Closing Night, after which all rooms close.

3. Your Access

- Your registration is for you and your spouse. Both of you may join the community under one registration.
- Sharing your materials, your community invitation, or your access with anyone who has not registered is not permitted and may result in removal without refund.
- Community access ends January 31, 2027, when all rooms close. This is by design and is not a cancellation.
- Digital materials you have downloaded are yours to keep and re-use, with no expiration.
- Registrations are not transferable between couples, except where purchased as a gift at the time of registration.

Upgrades

Just Us registrations may upgrade to In the Room or More of Us at any time before December 31, 2026. Upgrades are not available after registration closes.

4. Refund Policy

All sales are final. No refunds, credits or exchanges are issued at any tier.

This policy exists because of how the product works. Your complete digital collection — the Room for More Guide, the 80 Date Night Ideas, the Weekly Couples Check-In Guide, and, for More of Us registrations, the After Hours Collection — is delivered to your inbox within minutes of registration. Once those files have been sent, they cannot be returned.

By completing your registration you acknowledge and agree that:

- Your digital materials are delivered immediately and are non-refundable from the moment of delivery.
- Registration closes December 31, 2026. If you do not participate in January, no refund, credit or transfer is available.
- The Main Room is intentionally not open for member conversation until December 27, 2026. The build-up period is part of the experience and is not grounds for a refund.
- Community access ends January 31, 2027 by design. The scheduled close of the rooms is not grounds for a refund.
- If you are removed from the community for violating the Community Guidelines below, no portion of your registration fee is refunded.
- Chargebacks initiated without first contacting us may result in removal from the community and from future BMC offers.

If something went wrong

If your files did not arrive, your community invitation did not reach you, or you were charged twice — that is not a refund question, it is a problem we want to fix. Email info@blackmarriageclub.com and we will make it right.

5. Community Guidelines

Respect is the condition of entry.

Every couple is expected to be respectful toward every other couple at all times, in every room, and in any direct message that results from being in this community.

The following result in removal

- Disrespect toward any member — including insults, mocking, hostility, pile-ons, or comments about another couple's relationship, body, finances, parenting or choices.
- Direct messaging another member without their consent. Do not message any member who has not invited contact. Consent is given openly — a member says so in a room, shares their handle, or accepts an introduction. Until then, conversation stays in the rooms.

- Unwanted romantic or sexual attention — propositioning, flirting with, or pursuing another member or another member's spouse, in the rooms or by direct message. This community is for couples working on their own marriage. It is not a place to meet someone else's.
- Sharing explicit content in any room. The intimacy portion of this experience is private, between spouses. Nothing explicit — words, photos or video — belongs in the Main Room, a city room, or The Board.
- Screenshooting or sharing anything from the community outside of it. What couples share in here is shared in confidence.
- Harassment, threats, slurs, or discrimination of any kind.
- Promoting anywhere but The Board — including by direct message to other members. The Board is the only place any business, event or service may be shared, one post per couple per week.
- Promoting a competing couples brand on The Board. The Board is for the businesses, services and brands our couples own and build — realtors, photographers, travel advisors, event planners, creatives, service providers. It is not a place to promote other couples' communities, groups, challenges, retreats, cruises, events, memberships or coaching, or any brand operating in the same space as Black Marriage Club. Post what you build, not what competes with the room you were invited into.
- Sharing your access with anyone who has not registered.

Removal

Black Marriage Club reserves the right to remove any member from the community at any time, at its sole discretion, for conduct that violates these terms or otherwise harms the experience for other couples. Removal is immediate, permanent, and carries no refund of any portion of the registration fee. Removed members lose access to all rooms, Opening Night and Closing Night. Digital materials already delivered remain theirs to keep.

Privacy in the community

The community is hosted on Telegram. Your phone number is never visible to other members. Please extend the same privacy to everyone else: what is shared in the rooms stays in the rooms.

6. Content and Eligibility

You must be 18 years of age or older to register.

Room for More includes prompts covering both physical and non-physical intimacy. Every day offers three ways to engage, and you choose what fits your relationship, your comfort level and your energy that day. All intimate content is intended to be experienced privately between spouses and never appears in the community.

Participation in any prompt is entirely voluntary. Nothing in this experience should be done without the full, enthusiastic agreement of both spouses.

7. Not Professional Advice

Room for More is a relationship enrichment experience. It is not therapy, counseling, medical advice, or treatment of any kind, and it is not a substitute for care from a licensed professional. If you are facing serious difficulty in your marriage or your health, please seek qualified professional support.

8. Other Terms

Your information

We collect your names, email address and city room selection in order to deliver your materials, place you in the correct room, and communicate with you about the experience. We do not sell your information.

Communications

By registering you agree to receive emails related to Room for More through January 2027, including delivery, community updates and the Sunday Reset emails. You may unsubscribe from general BMC marketing at any time.

Your likeness

Opening Night and Closing Night may be recorded. If you appear on camera or in the chat, you agree that BMC may use that recording for its own purposes. If you would prefer not to appear, keep your camera off — you are still fully welcome in the room.

Featured Couple Highlights

The first twenty couples to register are offered a Featured Couple Highlight across BMC social platforms. Participation is entirely optional and requires your separate written agreement before anything is published.

Changes

BMC may make reasonable adjustments to the schedule, platform or programming. Any material change will be communicated by email to everyone registered.
